1. The election of species requirement has been withdrawn.
2. Claims 1-103 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Firstly, within claims 1, 31, and 59, the isocyanate species of (a) and (a)(ii) and the amine groups of (b) should be referred to in the alternative. Additionally, throughout the claims where the language, "selected from the group consisting of", is not used, species of Markush groups should be referred to in the alternative. For example, within claims 16-18, the species for R<sup>5</sup> should be referred to in the alternative. Applicants should bring all such groups into compliance with Office Markush group practice.

Secondly, the reference to compounds containing isocyanate and/or isothiocyanate groups as "polycyanates" is confusing, because polycyanates are distinct from polyisocyanates in terms of structure and chemistry.

3. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

Art Unit: 1711

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

4. Claims 1-103 are provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-18, 21-52, 55-84, and 87-119 of copending Application No. 09/695,332. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because each set of claims is drawn to compositions and processes comprising equivalent reactants in overlapping amounts.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.
